Student Survey: Gaining Parental/Family Consent and Student Assent

1. When developing a consent form, it is important to include the following:
   - Purpose of survey administration
   - The specific task or activities in which the students will participate (i.e., the survey)
   - Student assent provisions (i.e., explain that students will be free to withdraw)
   - Confidentiality: highlight privacy and confidentiality
   - Include a contact for the parent to reach out to with questions

Please see sample parent/guardian consent form below. This language should be reviewed with your district’s research office and/or institutional review board to ensure it complies with district policy related to student confidentiality.

2. In addition to the parent consent form, see assent language below that should be included in the introduction of the online survey.

Sample Parent/Guardian Consent Form

Dear Parent/Guardian:

This school year, the [School/District name] is collecting survey responses from students to learn more about how students experience competency-based education practices in their classes.

What We Are Asking
The purpose of this letter is to ask for your permission for your child to complete [Schools/districts: Specify whether surveys will be administered once, twice, or more often] survey(s) during this school year. The survey(s) will take approximately ___ minutes to complete. The survey(s) will ask about your child’s experiences of competency-based education practices in the classroom. The survey(s) will be administered in [insert date (e.g., Spring 2017)].

Privacy
All survey responses we collect will be used for research purposes only and will be kept confidential. The surveys that are administered will not have your child’s name on them [We suggest not including student names on surveys and using an identifier instead]. [Insert school/district privacy information.]

Freedom to Withdraw
Your child’s participation in this survey is completely voluntary. He or she may skip any question that is asked and may discontinue answering the survey at any time.

Risks
There are no known risks associated with answering this survey greater than what is experienced in everyday life. Our district/school will use data security procedures to ensure the confidentiality of students’ survey responses.

Benefits
Your child’s participation in this survey will increase our understanding of our school/district’s competency-based education practices. This information will be used to inform improvements in educational approaches in our school/district.

More Information
If you would like more information about this study, you may contact [insert contact information for parents to reach out to with questions].

Please sign and return the attached consent form by [input date].

We hope that you will allow your son or daughter to participate in this survey.

Sincerely,
If you agree to let your son or daughter participate, please sign and return the consent form enclosed with this letter by [date].

Informed Consent
If you have read the above information, asked any questions and received answers, and allow your child to participate in the survey, indicate your response and sign below.
